Dear Governor Wilson, Secretary Babbitt and Administrator Browner:

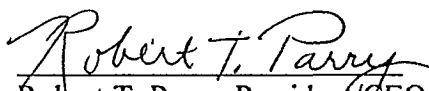

Congratulations on reaching your historical agreement for standards in the Bay-Delta Estuary. We applaud your tremendous efforts to cooperatively provide protection for our valuable water resources. Your leadership has been essential in assuring this significant advancement in water policy and resource management.

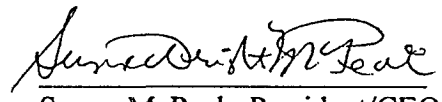

As representatives of the business community and organizations dedicated to improving the economy of the Bay Area, we are particularly pleased that your unprecedented cooperation will also foster certainty and stability in California's economy. Your accomplishment provides critical support for sustaining the economic recovery we are now experiencing in the state. And you have laid the foundation for further progress in the future.

Sincerely,

Dr. Julius Krevans, Chairman
